ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING (AGM)

The AGM will be the focus of our meeting on May 8th. Read and review the annual report on our website.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

DEBBIE ISAAC

Dear Members:

Here we are, it looks like spring has finally sprung, the sun is shining and there is a profusion of spring cleaning, stashing and de-stashing going on. As we head into the last couple of months of the Guild year there are myriad activities happening in and around our town.

April 20-22 saw a very successful in-town retreat, held at Notre- Dame-des-Champs Community Centre, and by all accounts many Mystery Quilts were being worked on, presumably in preparation for their display at the June Guild meeting. Gwenne has arranged for lots of really cool gifts for those who display their work.

April 21, saw a bus load of happy quilters head out on a Shop Hop preparing to not only load their credit cards, but their stashes as well – you never know how many rainy days are going to happen during an Ottawa summer, so it's best to be prepared with fresh fabrics to fondle and quilt.

April 27-29 will see our last in-town quilt retreat of the season. This is a great opportunity to finish any UFOs you have hanging around, rub elbows with other quilters and get some fresh new ideas for where you'd like to take your quilting next ... Appliqué? Paper-piecing? Log Cabins?

May 8th is our Annual General Meeting (AGM) , so be sure to mark it in your calendar and attend. A number of executive positions need to be filled and the voting will take place during the AGM.

May 11-13, will be our Quilting Traditions Quilt Show. Wow, I can't believe how quickly that has rolled around. Our team is hard at work finalizing this and that and getting ready to hang your beautiful quilts. Don't forget that it will be held at the City View Curling Club at 50 Capilano Drive, off Merivale Road. Remind all your friends and family, and if you have a couple of free hours, we still have a requirement for volunteers.

Speaking of Quilt shows, it is now that time of year, and many other guilds around the valley, province and beyond are hosting their own shows. In an effort to keep you apprised of where and when these other shows are happening we are posting their flyers both in the newsletter and on-line.

2018 Quilt Show Times (for your calendar)

Fri, May 11th 10:00 am - 5:00 pm
Sat, May 12th 10:00 am - 5:00 pm
Sun, May 13th 11:00 am to 4:00 pm

Admission: • General: $10 • Weekend Pass: $15 • Under 12: Free (accompanied by adult)

Without you as volunteers, our shows couldn't happen. Please sign up at the Guild meeting for set-up, white glove, admission desk, security, quilter's boutique & tear down.

Have questions? Contact Kirstin, our Quilt Show Coordinator at: ctgg.quilt.show@gmail.com

2018 QUILT SHOW UPDATE — VOLUNTEERS — PLEASE SIGN UP

Wahoo! Only days until our Quilt Show.

Please take a moment to check your schedule to see where you can lend a hand and work a shift (2hrs) or more? The sign-up posters will be at the May meetings or you can send Janice an email via the quilt show link (CTQG web site).

Types of Volunteer Opportunities:

White Glove Ambassadors: You stroll through the quilt display area, helping the visitors view the quilts, answer questions, hand out programmes, chat with folks and generally be a smiling face from our Guild.

Admissions: Selling entrance tickets, stamping hands and being your helpful selves.

Security: Monitoring one of three emergency exits for illicit activity (i.e. keep the quilts from walking out!). This is a sitting or standing shift.

CTQG Info Table: Promoting our own guild activities and membership.

Members' Market: Selling quilt items that our own members have for sale.

Set-Up: Thursday, May 10, starting 10:00am. This is all about hanging the quilts up. If you can you hang a curtain, you can hang a quilt (even my husband can do this one). If you can bring a ladder or another buddy (partner, offspring)? All help is appreciated and the more we have the easier & faster the job goes.

Tear-Down: Sunday after the show closes. The quilts get taken down, bagged up and handed back to the quilters. There is a wide variety of tasks from climbing a ladder to sitting, so everyone can help. Once again, the more hands we have for this task the faster it goes.

Why Volunteer? We need you, it's fun, you meet other quilters, you get to see what goes on behind the scenes and you get free admission to the Quilt Show the day you volunteer! Set-up volunteers get to pick their free day! So pick a day, pick a shift and sign up, come on out to the Quilt Show. Help us make this a successful Show for everyone! The old adage is so true "many hands make light work". Thank you and see you at the Quilt Show Table.

Janice Namiesnowski and Lyse Potvin, your Quilt Show Volunteer Coordinators

SHOP HOP APRIL 21, 2018

Quilt shop hopping, coach bus with entertaining driver, shopping, new friends, eating, shopping, games with prizes, shopping, beautiful weather, and did I mention shopping? A recipe for success!

Saturday, April 21st, was a beautiful day. As 21 quilters pulled out of the parking lot at 7:30 a.m. you could feel the excitement in the bus. This gang was ready to shop! All 3 shops welcomed us in different ways: Taylor Sewing Centre in Brockville opened early, Quilt Thyme in Kingston had goodie bags, and Stitch by Stitch was prepared to stay open late for us. Thanks to all 3 shops for their warm and welcoming atmosphere.

We had a bonus with our driver, he had his guitar and was practising while we were shopping. Shoppers who finished early were serenaded while they waited in the bus!

Thanks to everyone being on time, and no traffic, we were able to have a lunch stop at Panera Bread in Kingston. Some ladies took advantage of the stop to run across the street to the fashion outlets and came back with new spring clothing!

And how much did we spend? The guesstimates ranged from $1400 - $7500. The total was somewhere in between, but there will be no reveal here, as spouses might be reading this! Suffice to say that there were many bags filled with beautiful fabric and quilting necessities! You can see the happy faces in the picture.

Summer Contest!!

At the April Guild meeting, we announced the summer contest for Community Projects – we're calling it Panel Panache.

You take a printed panel, cut it up (or not) and make it into a quilt for us that we can then give to one of our charities. We have a few panels available (generously donated by Quilty Pleasures) or you can dig into your stash and find one to use. We only ask that you not use one that is limited to a specific time of year like Easter, Halloween or Christmas. If you don't have a panel but you have a fabric with a large print, you can use that instead.

You could make a child's quilt or a larger quilt depending on the theme of the panel. Please see the Common Thread Quilt Guild website for quilt sizes for our charities.

If you are using your own panel or fabric, be sure to register with us to be included in the contest.

The quilts are due by the end of the October meeting. At the November meeting, there will be two prizes given from names drawn from the quilts entered.

Victoria's Quilts Canada is a charitable organization of volunteers that provides quilts to people living with cancer in Canada – as a gift. To make the quilt tops, we rely on donations of 100% cotton fabric. We can't use Christmas, baby or novelty fabrics, but we take just about anything else – as long as it's unused and at least ¼ metre in size. Why not trim down your unruly stash by donating part of it so that we can continue providing comfort to those dealing with this dreaded disease.

We have a new venue for our show this year....the beautiful and historical First Congregational Church in downtown Malone, NY. We have also changed the days and hours of our show to Friday and Saturday, May 18 and 19, 2018. I've attached a poster with all of the info about the show. Please feel free to reproduce it and share with all of your quilt-loving friends.

when: Friday, May 18, 2018 from Noon-7PM and Saturday, May 19, 2018 from 10AM-4PM where: First Congregational Church, 2 Clay Street (corner of East Main and Clay Streets), Malone, NY 12953

about: The entire church will be filled to the brim with quilts and quilt-related happenings. Over 150 quilts and quilted items, all made by members of the Adirondack Quilters Guild, will be on display, bathed in the glow of sunlight through the many stained glass church windows. Several of the display quilts will be offered for sale, however, we ask that no actual transactions take place in the main of the church. All sales transactions will be completed in the vendor area, at the rear of the church building. The vendor area will also feature a vendors' mall with several quilt shops offering everything from fabric, patterns, quilting machines and finished quilts, all on site, as well as the AQG Silent Auction, quilting demonstrations and fat quarter basket raffles. In lieu of a raffle quilt at this year's show, we are holding an AQG Silent Auction of at least 30 quilted items ranging from baby and throw-sized quilts to wall-hangings, quilted handbags and wearable quilts, all made by AQG members. Tickets for the AQG Silent Auction items and the huge AQG Fat Quarter Basket raffles will be available in the vendors' mall throughout the quilt show. Winners of the auction items and raffles will be announced at the close of the quilt show on Saturday afternoon. You need not be present to win!

Light lunch and refreshments will be available for sale on site by the Ladies of the Congregational Church.

Admission donation: $5 per person per day - All proceeds from the show and raffles will be shared with the First Congregational Church Historic Architectural Restoration and Building Fund. Ample free street side parking.

Malone is located in very northern New York State - just an hour south of Montreal, Quebec and 1.5 hours from Ottawa, Ontario - two of the most beautiful cities in North America. We are situated on the north shoulder of the great Adirondack Mountain Park, just a 45 minute drive north of the Olympic City of Lake Placid, and a stone's throw from the beautiful St Lawrence Seaway and River Valley. Malone is a small town with several good restaurants and hotels available both in town and within a short drive. It's been a long winter in the North Country and in many parts of our country, and we're all ready for a little Springtime weather and some color in our lives. Invitation to our 2018 Salon Courtepointe Québec wishes to invite you to its eighth Exhibition of Quilts and Textile Arts which will be held from May 29th to June 3rd 2019 at the Lionel Groulx College situated at 100 Duquet St. in Sainte Thérèse de Blainville.

We are a non-profit organization that brings together quilt enthusiasts since 1986. We organize an exhibition every 2 years during which artisans dazzle us with their talent and their creativity. There are pieces for all tastes ranging from bed quilts to murals. We have conventional pieces, bed quilts quilted by hand but also modern style quilts as well as artistic creations. This exhibition, which is held during even numbered year, is the largest in the province of Quebec. Home - Salon 2018
